

Wednesday Weekly – May 5, 2021

The Wednesday Weekly has a new look this week, due to some technological difficulties. We should be back to normal next week.

- We appreciate your understanding and support as we transition back to school. We have had some bumps, but we know that would happen. Safety protocols continued to be followed to ensure the safety of our students and our staff.
- Thank you, too, for helping celebrate the amazing staff we have here at our school. This is Teacher Appreciation Week, and it is not too late to let thank the special men and women that have so positively impacted your family.
- The Spirit Shop has opened again – but the window is short. Get your orders in by Friday, May 7. Order on the school website, under the Spirit Wear tab, or check for the email link sent earlier by Mrs. Courier.
- Please submit your applications for Financial Aid. This is done through the Facts website, under the tab for Grant/Aid.
- Information on the Summer Camp was sent home or emailed to families who completed our survey request. Once completed, return registration forms to Mrs. Cooper.
- Next week, the teachers will begin administering the I-Ready Diagnostic Tests for students in grades 3-8. We cannot overemphasize the importance of this test. Please make sure your children are well-rested and get to school on time. Remind them, too, that effort and time are required. The scores will hopefully reflect their hard work for the year. For our 7th Graders, these scores will be sent to your high school choices.
- We are nearing the close of this school year and our end-of-the-year activities will be very different than in previous years. Specific guidelines will be sent out on any events the school is holding.
- HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY! To all the beautiful, incredible, inspiring women who have touched so many lives; to mothers, grandmothers, aunts, godmothers, sisters, mentors, and friends – we celebrate you all on Sunday and every day.

We have some very sad news to share with our St. Catherine-St. Lucy family. Over the weekend, one of our graduates, Carmille Johnson, was tragically killed in a car accident. We ask that you keep his family in your hearts and in your prayers.
